

双语 Eight-Year Devotion to Henan: An International Scholar's In-Depth Literary Endeavor
八年河南情，一位国际学者的文学深耕

2018年，国际知名维多利亚文学、十九世纪文化研究专家凯文·莫里森做出一个并不寻常的决定：来到河南大学，成为一名外籍特聘教授。如今，八年过去了，他依然站在讲台上，带着学生读十九世纪英国小说，也带着同事编国际期刊、建学术网络。

在河南大学，莫里森开设了多门核心课程，覆盖本硕阶段学生数百名。课堂上，他不只讲情节和主题，更拆解论文写作逻辑、国际期刊的审稿标准、学术会议的发言规范。

除了日常教学，莫里森在人才培养上投入了大量精力。任职以来，莫里森共协助指导了5名硕士生毕业，目前还在持续协助指导21名硕士生和两名博士生。同时，他还主动助力中青年教师成长，培育了一批潜力突出的青年学术骨干。

为助力学科长远发展，莫里森牵头创建全球十九世纪研究学会、创办《十九世纪全球研究》学术期刊并担任创始主编，牵头打造专业化、国际化英美文学学术交流平台，持续推动期刊跻身国际权威索引体系，构建起覆盖六大洲、14个国家的国际学术网络，极大提升了河南大学英美文学学科的国际话语权和学术影响力。

作为一名活跃在国际学术圈的学者，莫里森同样致力于推动中外学术交流。他任职以来累计主持、组织、参与组织国际学术会议20余次，先后赴美国、英国、德国、澳大利亚、科威特、阿联酋等国家参会讲学。同时，他主动牵线搭桥，持续引育海外高端人才，并推动定期组织国际学术沙龙。

从美国到河南，莫里森的轨迹看似跨越山海，但在他自己看来，不过是把书桌搬到另一个有学术热情的地方。

In 2018, Kevin Morrison, an internationally recognized scholar of Victorian literature and nineteenth-century cultural studies, made an unusual decision: he joined Henan University as a Distinguished Foreign Professor. Eight years later, he remains in the classroom, guiding students through nineteenth-century British novels while working with colleagues to edit international journals and build scholarly networks.

At Henan University, Morrison has taught a range of core courses reaching hundreds of undergraduate and graduate students. His teaching extends beyond literary plots and themes to the structures of academic argument, the standards of international peer review, and the conventions of presenting research at academic conferences.

Beyond the classroom, Morrison has devoted considerable attention to developing students and younger scholars. Since joining Henan University, he has assisted in supervising five master's students through graduation and currently assists in supervising 21 master's students and two doctoral students. He has also actively supported the development of early- and mid-career faculty, helping to cultivate a cohort of promising younger scholars.

To advance the long-term development of the field, Morrison founded the Society for Global Nineteenth-Century Studies and established Global.Nineteenth_Century.Studies, serving as its founding editor. He has helped create a professional and international platform for scholarship in British and American literature, worked to secure the journal's inclusion in major international indexes, and developed an academic network spanning six continents and fourteen countries. These initiatives have substantially enhanced the international visibility and scholarly influence of British and American literary studies at Henan University.

An active participant in the international scholarly community, Morrison has also worked extensively to promote academic exchange between China and the wider world. Since joining Henan University, he has chaired, organized, or participated in more than twenty international academic conferences and has traveled to the United States, United Kingdom, Germany, Australia, Kuwait, the United Arab Emirates, and other countries to lecture and present his research. He has also helped recruit international scholars and supported the development of regular international academic forums.

From the United States to Henan, Morrison's journey may appear to span mountains and seas. From his perspective, however, it has simply meant moving his desk to another place with a passion for scholarship.

The profile was subsequently adapted for international audiences by the Zhengzhou International Media Communication Center (ZMICC).
